An Opinion of Koolau.

The following is taken from the August number of the An glican Church Chronicle:

"We have heard that Koolau the leper, who is still at large on Kauai, was formerly a most genial He had been lying on the roadside and hard working man. He is since 11 o'clock in the morning. passionately attached to his wife, He was brought to town and given and it is the dread of separating in charge of his friends. from her which keeps him from surrendering to the authorities. She is only about twenty years of age and posses great strength and activity of body. Her aim with the rifle or or revolver is unerring."
